

Chy Kensa, Porthleven

“Chy Kensa is a semi-detached cottage - converted from some former net lofts set in a quiet location just off the harbour and convenient for all facilities and also only a few minutes walk to the beach.”

The accommodation is fully equipped for four and comprises a large lounge with TV, video, DVD and music centre, newly fitted kitchen with oven, microwave, dishwasher and washer/dryer, a double bedroom, twin bedroom and bathroom with shower over the bath. Duvets, bed linen, towels and a hairdryer are all provided and electricity is included in the price.

At the rear of the property is a delightful small patio with table and chairs and there is a parking space by the front door. Chy Kensa has a no smoking policy. One small pet is permitted (downstairs only).

The cottage was completely refurbished for 2007 and is a perfect base for both couples and families.
